Please include the loan number, borrower's name and property address on your check. If the default is not cured within this time-frame, the mortgagee may exercise its right to accelerate payment of this loan. Failure to cure this default may result in the sale of the property secured by this mortgage at a foreclosure sale. If the full amount listed above is paid within 35 days of receipt of this letter any other fees and costs due as of this date will be waived. If you meet the conditions above, you will have the right to have the mortgagee's enforcement of this Security Instrument discontinued and to have the Note and the Security Agreement remain fully effective as if immediate payment in full had never been required. You have the right in any lawsuit for foreclosure and sale to argue that you did keep your promises and agreements under the Note and under the Security Instrument, and to present any other defenses that you may have.

You may have options available other than foreclosure. You may discuss available options with the mortgagee, which is Wilmington Trust, National Association, Not in Its Individual Capacity, but Solely as Trustee for MFRA Trust 2015-1, the mortgage servicer, which is Fay Servicing, LLC or a counselor approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. You are encouraged to explore available options prior to the end of the right-to-cure period.

As defined under Maine Law, Wilmington Trust, National Association, Not in Its Individual Capacity, but Solely as Trustee for MFRA Trust 2015-1 is the Owner/Investor in the note and mortgage, which is the subject of this letter.

Where mediation is available under 14 M.R.S.A. section 6321-A, you may request mediation to explore options for avoiding foreclosure judgment.

A list of all counseling agencies approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development operating to assist mortgagors in the State to avoid foreclosure is attached.

NOTICE OF IMPORTANT RIGHTS

Pursuant to the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (15 USCS Sec. 1692), a consumer debtor is required to be sent the following notice: (1) unless the consumer, within thirty days after receipt of this notice, disputes the validity of the debt or any portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by the debt collector; (2) if the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing with the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector; and (3) upon the consumer's written request within the thirty day period, the debt collector will provide the consumer with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor. The law firm of Doonan, Graves & Longoria, LLC is acting as the debt collector, pursuant to the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. Any information will be used for that purpose. The Federal Trade Commission has ruled that the Federal Fair Debt Collection does not preclude the institution of legal action prior to the expiration of the thirty day period. If you are in bankruptcy or received a bankruptcy discharge of this debt, this communication is not an attempt to collect the debt against you personally, but is notice of a possible enforcement of the lien against the collateral property.

Very truly yours,
